Here we are July 14th 2023 my lawyer she does not show up and some other man who knows nothing of my case shows up. NO ATTORNEY AT YOUR FIRM HAS LOOKED AT ANY OF MY DOCUMENTS ON GOOGLE DRIVE! THIS IS NOT RIGHT! You have fiduciary duty!

A fiduciary duty is a legal responsibility to act in the best interest of another party. The term "fiduciary" comes from the Latin word for trust, and a person with a fiduciary duty has a legal obligation to maintain that trust. For example, lawyers have a fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of their clients.

Fiduciary duties include duties of care, loyalty, good faith, confidentiality, prudence, and disclosure. The person with a fiduciary duty is known as the fiduciary, and the person or persons they are responsible to are referred to as the principal or the beneficiary.

Rule 3.10. Application The Civil Rules apply to all civil cases in the superior courts.

Rule 3.670. Telephone appearance (a) Policy favoring telephone appearances The intent of this rule is to promote uniformity in the practices and procedures relating to telephone appearances in civil cases. To improve access to the courts and reduce litigation costs, courts should permit parties, to the extent feasible, to appear by telephone at appropriate conferences, hearings, and proceedings in civil cases. (Subd (a) adopted effective January 1, 2008.)

Subdivision (d). The inclusion of ex parte applications in this rule is intended to address only the way parties may appear and is not intended to alter the way courts handle ex parte applications.

Subdivision (h). Under subdivision (h)(6), good cause should be construed consistent with the policy in (a) and in Code of Civil Procedure section 367.5(a) favoring telephone appearances. Some examples of good cause to appear by telephone without notice include personal or family illness, death in the family, natural disasters, and unexpected transportation delays or interruption.
